NOTE: The instructor will receive this form, as is, after the semester is over and final grades have been recorded. If you are concerned that the instructor might recognize your handwriting, you may wish to communicate your comments in a typed format separately at a later time rather than completing this section.

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

It taught us how to discuss topics, issues, content rather than just listen to a lecture.

He made the "old boring stuff" relevant and showed us why it's still important today.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

There were times where the qs were so open-ended, it was hard to know how to respond, but I think this also speaks to how most curriculums train us to be hand-fed rather than a professor being able to say "discuss" and the students just go.

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

The course was consistently engaging and stimulated my interest in a subject matter that I had not previously studied. I now have a much better appreciation for and opinion of Early American Literature.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

None, I liked it how it was.

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

The instructor made course content interesting and fun. Work expected was extremely fair. Course was successful without being "easy". Intellectually stimulating and easy to show up to.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

Honestly, nothing!
