What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

Phil was an entertaining and knowledgeable professor — there was never a moment when I was bored by this class. I found it extremely interesting to pick apart and analyze the works of literature we covered, and the atmosphere of the class was intimate and lively. I would definitely recommend this course to anyone interested in literature who might be intimidated by heavier works, because the stories were modern and relatively short. 10/10

Philip is amazing! He is a great professor who really cares about the engagement of his students and their thoughts on the stories. He catered the stories to the majority of the students likes and related them to present day.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

The course had some online quizzes that did not fit in with the class.

I really liked this class, I think it was really interesting and I liked the discussions we had. Everyone had a lot of interesting input and we explored a lot of ideas I wouldn't have thought of on my own.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

I wish there was a way to get everyone more involved, but that's on us. Maybe have small like 10 question quizzes at the start of each class to make sure people read. Nothing too hard, just to get people to actually read and think.

Overall great class, way better than I expected it would be when I picked it.

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

Phil created a learning environment that relaxed the students but also made the content fun and relevant to our lives.

This was my first literature course and Phil blew my expectations of a boring class right out of the water.

This was an amazing class with an amazing instructor.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

None need improvement. Instructor and course content were great.

More students need this class and Phil!

Phil was an all around great instructor. He kept class interesting by choosing texts from different demographics around the world. He sparked our interest by giving outside reading suggestions that were interesting, and he was funny as hell.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

Maybe just not having to do any reading quizzes and have some <sup>Pearson</sup> that go with the content we're reading.

I had an awesome time this semester + learned quite a bit!
Thank you for being inclusive and engaging!
