What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

Phil makes the content really relatable, and through other, lesser known materials given in a new perspective on old literature. It's obvious he shares a passion for these texts and intimate knowledge of his field, but is still always eager to share with us.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

An Bruno Mars one said, "you're amazing - just the way you are."

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

Every conversation & discussion we had in this class was so real & interesting rather than just an "instructions" sort of class, so I enjoyed this class very much. It was all about letting each other express their thought about pieces of writing which made it ^{one of} the best classes I have taken here at FSU.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

Nothing, Phil is awesome.

I had a lot of fun + I learned a lot. I'm usually not good at analysis of writing (I'm a STEM major), but I learned a lot from you. Thanks for making me read Moby Dick too. That was a great experience

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

It being my second course with Phil, I am as satisfied with him as I was last semester. His course structure truly emphasizes the importance of the material over grades, and here of that I can confidently say I care more about this class than the others.

What aspects of the course and/or the instructor's instructional methods should be improved? Please give examples.

I really cannot think of any improvements.

Teach Moby-Dick again, I'm very glad we read it this time. Phil's excitement about it was contagious.

What did you like about the course and/or instructor? Please give examples.

Phil is one of the best instructors that I've had in my four years of undergrad. He is extremely passionate about the course material, and that passion inspires everyone in the class to actively participate and engage with the material. As a student that struggles with a social anxiety disorder, I don't often find myself eager to contribute to class discussion. However, Phil cultivated a classroom environment where every person's ideas were thought to be important, which encouraged me to speak up and learn as much as I possibly could.

The instructor cares a great deal about his students and shows a mastery of the content. He is very transparent about expectations. He is overqualified for the position and I think he might be a genius.

All of the content in the course was incredibly interesting. I think all of the readings were chosen well by the instructor as well as covered clearly and in depth. The structure of the course work allows students to effectively complete readings and assignments without excessive strain on their schedule. Professor is hilarious even through the times when the class is quiet I believe his humour & sarcasm are deeply appreciated.
